

We Build Community 2013-2014

Application

Thank you for your interest in applying for We Build Community. Before starting on this application, please ensure that you have read the attached FAQ. Please submit your application as a single PDF document to K'ai Smith, Director of Programs and Operations, at kai@saalt.org by October 14, 2013 with "WBC 2013-2014 application" in the subject line.

To complete this application, please type your information directly in the grey space provided (on the blank line or below the question).

Organization Information

Organization
Organization address
	Street
	City	State	Zip code
	Phone

Decision-makers

Identify the two (2) decision-makers who will participate in required events and calls for this program. It is strongly recommended that one designated contact me the Executive Director and the other be a senior staff member.

Contact #1
	First name	Last name
	Title
	Email	Phone

Contact #2
	First name	Last name
	Title
	Email	Phone

Does your organization have 501c3 status?
If not, who is your fiscal sponsor?

History of Work

Expand upon your organization's history on and ability to address racial justice, immigration justice,

We Build Community 2013-2014

Application

gender justice, and/or LGBTQ justice through effective coalition building and allyship if you are selected for We Build Community.

- Please be as specific as possible in identifying up to three activities, programs, or partnerships that your organization has engaged in on these issues in the past, and characterize your involvement in them.
- Highlight any meaningful coalition and ally work you have participated in or led.

[Insert response here]

Expansion of Work

Identify no more than 1-3 specific way in which your organization will deepen and expand your work around racial justice, immigration justice, gender justice, and/or LGBTQ justice through effective coalition building and allyship if you are selected for We Build Community. (Please refer to the FAQ for examples). Please include the following for each proposed expansion of work:

1. Identify which coalition(s) and allies you will work with;
2. Identify the area of growth or expansion in terms of coalition-building, e.g., LGBTIQ/South Asians, immigration/South Asians, African Americans and South Asians, etc...; and
3. Share your detailed strategy for the planning, implementation, and evaluation of your proposed coalition and ally work.

[Insert response here]

Organizational Capacity Building Need

Please identify no more than 1-3 specific capacity-building needs that your organization will focus on if you are selected for the We Build Community and why these needs are important ones to be addressed by your organization in 2013-2014. Please include the following for each identified need:

- Explain, in detail, how the capacity building needs are directly connected to your proposed expansion of work around racial justice, immigration justice, gender justice, and/or LGBTQ justice through effective coalition building and allyship.
- Please share how you would allocate funds towards achieving this capacity-building need, such as the training, consultants, and/or resources you seek to access. (Please refer to the FAQ for examples of capacity building needs).

[Insert response here]

Evaluation and Monitoring

Describe how your organization will monitor the planning and implementation of training, general support, and supported project(s), including a detailed description of evaluation methods and tools your organization will use to ensure that deliverables are met.

[Insert response here]

Project Staff Members

Provide information about the staff member(s) who will be part of this project. You may include a brief bio, as well as their tenure at the organization and their background/experience that will enhance your organization's participation in We Build Community.

We Build Community 2013-2014

Application

[Insert response here]

Budget

Include your 2013-2014 organizational budget with this application and provide information below on how the sub-grant would be allocated. (Please refer to the FAQ for examples and guidelines).

- Program expenses related to work around racial justice, immigration justice, gender justice, and/or LGBTQ justice through effective coalition building and allyship can account for any percentage of proposed budget
- Capacity-building expenses may account for any percentage of proposed budget

Provide an explanation of how funds allocated towards each of the line items above will enhance and support your organization.

[Insert response here]

Attachments

Please attach the following items when you submit your application:

- Organizational budget (see above section)
- Projected workplans, including timelines, for your work around racial justice, immigration justice, gender justice, and/or LGBTQ justice through effective coalition building and allyship project(s) and connected capacity building project(s) from November 1, 2013—December 31, 2014.
- Media articles or materials related to your organization's history of work around racial justice, immigration justice, gender justice, and/or LGBTQ justice and effective coalition building and allyship (up to three)